

Thimble & Thread Quilt Guild of Greater St. Louis

Volume 41, No. 3

March 2017

Future Programming

March 10, 2017: Jan Ochterbeck will be presenting her lecture on Cut and Shuffle Quilts. Jan has had a career in apparel, textile and accessory product development. She has made the transition to quilts and pattern designs, which appeal to both modern and traditional quilters. You can find her online at <http://thecolorfulfabriholic.blogspot.com/> .

April 7, 2017: Lizzie B Cre8ive. Liz Hawkins will be joining us. She's been a quilt designer in the industry, along with her sister-in-law, for almost 10 years. They started their journey as designers together because of their combined passion for quilting, and also because they both share the exact same name: Elizabeth Ann Hawkins! They always thought it'd be fun to go into business together. They started Lizzie B Cre8ive as pattern designers concentrating mostly on whimsical, bright, appliqué projects. They went on to publish two books with Kansas City Star. They also teach, lecture, and have just launched their 6th fabric line with Henry Glass Fabrics. It's been a wild ride, and they've made many friends along the way in this wonderful industry.

May 12, 2017: Candy Grisham will present her program "Discovering the artist within -- The Journey to Creativity." This lecture and trunk show will explore how to find the inner artist and where creativity comes from.

Saturday, May 13: Candy will give a workshop, Modern Dresden. A modern update for making a variety of Dresden plate designs using a single template. The class will cover 4 different variations of edge finishes. Size variations are endless. You will learn to sew the plates by machine and mix and match your edge finishes if desired. Designed to be a technique class letting you determine how many plates, what sizes and finishes and layout you desire. (Photo of workshop on next page)

Important Reminder

The Guild meeting will begin at 7:00 PM

Thanks!!
Debby Logan

Welcome to Thimble & Thread Quilt Guild

One of St. Louis' largest quilting clubs. We hope you will join us at one of our monthly meetings, a workshop, a retreat or even a quilt show. Explore our web site <http://www.thimbleandthreadstl.org> to see some of the quilt-related things going on in St. Louis, our Guild and elsewhere.

We meet at Concordia Lutheran Church, 505 South Kirkwood Road at 7:00 pm on the second Friday of each month, unless changes are announced in the newsletter or on the website.

Doors open at 6:30 pm. Guild meetings are open to non-members, free for the first visit (unless the program involves a national speaker), and $3 per visit thereafter. A $5 fee is charged whenever a national speaker gives the program. Membership dues are $30 per year.

A pre-meeting dinner is held at O'Charley's restaurant, 1242 South Kirkwood Road, starting between 5:00 and 5:15 pm. If you decide to join us, please let the staff at O'Charley's know you are with "the quilters".

From the Prez

It's almost here!

Spring, that is, and with it our 2017 quilt show. We've made the quilts, we've hired some muscle, and we've recruited volunteers. It's almost time for lights, action, camera! I hope by now that you have signed up to help out in some capacity. By the way, you can volunteer to do more than one thing. Many hands make light work.

At the same time we are looking for a candidate to fill the Vice President's position. This job may be shared with another person, so perhaps you and a friend would like to do this together. It is very rewarding and I frankly found it easier to do than any other job I have done for the guild. Honestly.

We had a great workshop in February with Casey York and I have already put what I have learned not only into the project started at the workshop, but into two small seasonal challenge quilts that will be displayed at the quilt show. There is still plenty of time to make one or both of the challenges – Hot Hexies or Seasons. They are quickly done being so small and very rewarding. Please consider making one or two if you haven't already done so. The challenge quilts always attract a lot of attention at any quilt show I have attended.

See you in March!

Piece Out,

Mary Ellen

Job Opening

Debby Logan will be completing two years as Vice President at the end of June 2017. This is an opportunity for you to step up and fill that position. The Vice President's duties include filling in when the President is not available to preside at meetings, but the primary role is to secure programming for guild meetings. There are 12 meetings a year and 10 of them require a program with a speaker. December is the annual Christmas party and January is usually a guild activity such as this year's UFO challenge.

Three guild members are needed to form a nominating committee; two must be members at large and the third person must be a Board member. The nominating committee's job is to locate a guild member who is able and willing to assume the Vice President's job July 1, 2017. The alternative is if someone volunteers to be Vice President without being asked.

If you are interested in either being on the nominating committee or volunteering as Vice President, please contact me at mike_echo@hotmail.com. By the way, the Vice President's job is one that can be shared with another member.

“The Power of Quilts” – Quilt Show 2017

The quilt show is less than a month away. The arrangement of the quilts has been decided and the vendor spaces are filled. Sleeves are being attached to over 225 quilts.

Thank you to all who have signed up to be volunteers. We have many sit down jobs (sewing machine raffle, membership table, book and pattern sales) that still need staffing. We also have need for white glove volunteers. Please look at the list available in this newsletter and see what jobs still need to be filled. Be prepared to sign up at the March 10th Guild meeting, which is only ONE WEEK BEFORE the quilt show. Consider signing up for more than one slot. If you have signed up for show setup or quilt hanging please double check the times, the time slots have been shifted slightly.

Quilt drop off is from 7:45 – 9:00 am at Queeny Park on Friday, March 17th. Please make arrangements to get your quilts there on time. Every quilt must be finished and bound, have a label on the back, and be stored in a pillowcase. Each pillowcase must be labeled with the guild member’s name and quilt name. Sleeves must be attached to all quilts with a perimeter of 100 inches or more, which means every quilt, except a miniature, needs a sleeve. Look on the website for directions and measurements for putting on sleeves. When putting the quilts in the pillowcase please fold the quilts so that the sleeve is near the pillow top opening as well as the quilt label. This insures that the right quilt is hung in the correct location with a minimal chance of the quilt touching the floor.

We need ladders to help hang drapes and quilts on Friday. Please bring your 6 foot or taller ladders to help us make faster work of putting the show up. The ladders are stored out of sight for the weekend and then are brought back out for take down.

For the first time, lunch for volunteers and vendors will be available at the concession stand on Friday, 11 am–2 pm. There will be food available that is appropriate for those observing Lenten abstinence from meat.

Due to security concerns, guild members will not be able to store personal items in the money counting room. There will be tubs behind the door prize table to store small items. Since there will be no direct supervision of the tubs, members’ use of the tubs is at their own risk. Our recommendation is to bring as little as possible to the show, keeping cash and credit cards on your person.

Looking forward to a great show!

Pat Ferrell, Jeanette Oesterly, Chris Willbanks

2017 “The Power of Quilts” Members Consignment Booth

I welcome all members that would like to participate and place items in the Consignment Booth to contact me, Denise Poepsel, if you would like to join in this area of the Quilt Show. If you are creative and would like to have your items for sale at the show you can place them in the booth. Members receive 85% of the sale price and the quilt guild receives 15% of the sale. Fabric and quilt related items are most welcome. I have packet of complete instructions and paperwork that needs to be completed when items are turned in. If you cannot be at a meeting to obtain a packet please call or email and I can get one to you. You would need to work in the booth during the show as volunteer staffing doesn't cover our booth needs. Come join in the fun of the 2017 Quilt Show with your imagination. Denise Poepsel, 314-353-1207, dapoep@gmail.com.

Show Announcements

Touch of Spring Challenge – Cindy Clifton advises that she only received 4 “Touch of Spring” quilts at the February meeting. She has asked the remaining 3 or so be brought to the March meeting including the peoples’ choice quilt. If you won a prize, please put a note on your quilt. All quilts must have a label on them so (1) you get proper recognition and (2) so that it comes back to you. They will be returned to you at the April meeting.

Quilt Raffle – please bring in sold tickets and monies for the raffle quilt and give to Cindy Clifton. We, the Guild, need to determine the status of sales and how much money we have actually collected.

Four Seasons Challenge – your challenge piece is due at the March meeting; please turn in to Dolores Keaton. A quick reminder about the rules: the finished size is 6” by 36” long using any technique(s). Edges are to be finished either with a binding or pillowcase technique. It must be quilted. Make sure your name is on the back. One specific color is to be included for each season along with any additional colors you choose to include: Spring – Lime Green, Summer – Yellow, Autumn – Orange, and Winter – Teal Green.

Hot Hexie Challenge – Due no later than the March Meeting (3/10/17). Guidelines are on the website under Downloads – Quilt Show Challenge. Basic guidelines are: (1) only hexagons may be used in the quilt (although pieced hexies will work), (2) size of hexagon is your choice, (3) color scheme is your choice, (4) quilt parameters – no larger than 25” by 25”, and (5) quilt must be labeled on back and include name of quilt, quilt maker, quilter, and contact information of owner.

Volunteers – list of volunteers appears at the end of the newsletter.

February 10, 2017 Minutes of Thimble and Thread Quilt Guild

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm by our President Mary Ellen Adams.

Debby Logan introduced our speaker Casey York.

Casey's trunk show "Modern Applique" gave us a "fresh" look at applique and very interesting ideas on the use of open space sometimes referred to as "negative space". Her approach to applique inspired many to dig out some of our projects and look at them in a different way. Her book "The Applique Book, Traditional Techniques, Modern Style" shows her unique way of visualizing space, subject and color. Her method of Broderie Perse Applique using flowers, animals and other objects was beautiful.

Old Business -

The minutes from the December 9th, 2016 were approved.

New Business -

Mary Ellen Adams announced that Debbie Logan would be completing her role as VP in May 2017. Members were asked to consider filling this role effective June 2017.

Also, Mary Ellen has received thank yous from "Nurses for Newborns". Our generosity is very much appreciated.

If you are interested in the National Museum Raffle Quilts project please contact Mary Ellen for more information.

The members approved changing the starting time to 7:00 permanently.

Committees:

Newsletter – Deadline for articles is due February 20, 2017.

Quilt Show Committees – We have a total of 228 quilts registered. We still need volunteers in many areas.

Raffle Quilt – Cindy Clifton did not have an amount to report on the sales but tickets were still available.

Gifts of Love – Donations were taken tonight for the booth. At this time we are in good shape.

Quilt Show Challenge – Pat Ferrell was delighted to see a show of hands on members who plan to have their "Hexie" projects completed in time for the show.

Delores Keaton still has instructions for the "Seasons" Quilt Show Challenge and it is not too late to participate. Please call or check with her for more information.

Membership – Chris Wilbanks reported 81 members present and 7 guests.

Newsletter Raffle – 10 Items were available for raffle.

Fabric Raffle – Terri Weiermueller and Annie Ruffino – Valentine Theme from OSEWPERSONAL.

Optional Block – Two block patterns were available because of our cancellation in February. Valentine block for February and a Tulip Block for March.

Retreat – The retreat is October 20 – 22 at Pallotine center. Deposits to reserve your space were taken by Lou Brummet. It is very important to have deposits and not just names. We have financial deadlines we must meet with Pallotine in order to reserve our place.

Programs – Debby Logan reminded all that Jan Ochterbeck will be our speaker in March.

After the Break:

Completed UFO's were presented by 14 members. The following lucky members won a prize in the UFO drawing: Liza Mitchell, Annie Ruffino, Kathy Sherrick, Carol O'Shea and Sally Koczan.

Raffles:

Membership and Newsletter raffles were drawn.

Fabric Raffle was won by Mary Ellen Adams and Linda Polcyn.

Optional Block of three Snowmen was won by Kathy Sherrick.

Show and Tell

Mary Ellen reminded us of the 7:00 start date.

Adjournment

Diane Corley, Secretary

Optional Block

The winner of the “Snowman” blocks at the February meeting was Kathy Sherrick.
Congratulations Kathy!!!!

Since the January meeting was cancelled due to weather, there were two optional blocks available at the February meeting. Would love to see lots of “My Heart Belongs To” and “Tulips” brought back to the March meeting.

Membership Report

February 2017

There were 81 people in attendance at the November meeting. We had seven guests: Michele Dorin, Anne Perkins, Nancy Dlugosz, Carolyn Marshall, Ginny Schmitz, Diane Imler, Rea Lizenby, and Nichole Hagemann. We hope to see you again at future meetings.

We have two new members, Lynn McGraw and John Enberg, and Ted Sanders has renewed his membership. Since the guild's website is open to the public we cannot publish personal information about new members via the website. Therefore we will soon provide an addendum to the directory at a guild meeting.

Remember, this is the time of year where dues are pro-rated, if you have friends who haven't joined, their dues would be $15.00 for memberships expiring June 30, 2017.

Thank you!

Chris Willbanks & Jeanette Oesterly

Membership Committee

The April Optional Block's theme is "Hip Hop".

Mike and Joan Tebeau

Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival

The Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival will be held Thursday, June 15, through Saturday, June 17, 2017, at the Overland Park Convention Center in Overland Park, Kansas. One-day tickets can be purchased online for $15 or $17 at the door. Class registrations began January 18. Their website indicates how many openings are still available. Their first show in 2015 was sponsored by 15 regional quilt guilds. They had 100 vendors and 700 quilts.

Request for Plastic Bags

If you have extra plastic bags both the Consignment Booth and Book Sales would love to have them for the Quilt Show. Please bring to the March meeting and give to either Denise Poepsel or Susan Sanders.

Free Stuff

Recently, I received a few requests for tips on Free Motion quilting. That's funny because I am very much a novice in need of many more hours of practice — please don't look too closely at my quilting. However, I have overcome my fear of trying, which would be my #1 Tip. If you want to learn to free motion quilt your own quilts, I encourage you to check out these online resources that have been very helpful to me.
