THIMBLE AND THREAD QUILT GUILD

I hope everyone and their families has stayed safe and healthy this last month and followed the guidelines when going outside. With an endless supply of calico and finding the right elastic hidden in a basket, I have made a few masks for myself and at the request of my sister-in-law, who doesn't sew, made a dozen for her relatives.

We are cancelling the May 8, 2020 meeting as noted in our April newsletter in keeping with the church still being closed and state rule of "Staying at Home". Mr. Houston was very understanding and when we can get back to a meeting schedule he hopes to come and visit still this calendar year.

I found this saying on an old Windham preprinted piece of fabric:

Three essentials for happiness are:
Something to do
Something to love
And something to hope for

We are all, I'm sure, keeping busy with new and old projects, and maybe realizing why we started that old project in the first place, the pattern, the fabric we bought to complete it, and as we look down the calendar for maybe the next time we will be able to get together as a guild, we have a timeline to finish that project to show off at "SHOW AND TELL".

I've emailed a few past speakers, Ann Say in Kansas City, said they got in their last graduating class from "Once We Were Refugees", in March and now closed until further notice, but she is working on a new Hawaiian quilt for herself. Anita Grossman Solomon, who was here a year ago this April, from New York City, is staying safe in her apartment and busy with projects.

Mary Ann Wachtel has moved into Assisted Living at Sarah Community in Bridgeton, 12284 De Paul Drive, Veronica House, Apt. 129, Bridgeton, Mo. 63044. 314-225-9414, email: journey100@att.net. As most facilities are in lockdown with no outside visitors, in this day and age it is so nice to have the internet to communicate with friends and family during these times.

We will keep in contact with Webster Groves Presbyterian Church over the next month and will update everyone in the June newsletter as to future meeting dates as we get thru these challenging times.

From a daily calendar at the computer from March 13, 2020:
“The most aggravating thing about the younger generation is that I no longer belong to it”
Albert Einstein

Everyone stay safe. Denise Poepsel

Newsletter Deadline

The next deadline for submitting items for the Thimble & Thread newsletter is May 18, 2020. Please send entries to thimbleandthreadnews@yahoo.com. Any questions, comments, etc. regarding the newsletter should be send to Susan Sanders, the editor for 2019-2020. Note: information for newsletter must be in by the deadline and in word format only (word.docx). I do not have the capability to convert non-word files to word.

Editor's Note

This is an abbreviated newsletter. Hopefully, by June we will be able to meet (with social distancing). Page 3 does contain our membership form. Please print, fill out, and send to Lillian Seese.

If you have any projects, photos, words of wisdom to share with your fellow guild members, please forward to me and I'll put in the next newsletter.
